By-election candidates — Part 1

MJ Phillips

Merritt requires a Councillor dedicated to safeguarding the financial interests of our community, ensuring that all our assets generate a net positive return exceeding their expenses. Presently, several assets operate at a loss, necessitating taxpayer funds to sustain them, funds that could be more efficiently allocated to bolstering our infrastructure.

What Merritt demands is a meticulously crafted, transparent plan that elucidates the city's trajectory in a manner easily comprehensible to its residents.

Despite skepticism regarding the feasibility of a centralized facility in a city of Merritt's size, we must adopt a forward-looking approach, considering imminent projects like the 286 initiative, the bench, and others poised to swell Merritt's population. Consolidating our facilities within a single complex presents an opportunity to repurpose downtown land for mixed-use developments, enhancing its commercial & residential appeal.

To ensure Merritt's vitality, we must proactively court emerging industries and cultivate high-paying employment opportunities, pivoting away from declining sectors. This necessitates unconventional thinking to unearth solutions that not only fortify Merritt's economic bedrock but also foster a more cohesive community spirit among its inhabitants.

Merritt's trajectory must be resolutely forward-facing; clinging to antiquated hopes of industrial resurgence is untenable. The imperative is to identify & nurture nascent industries capable of sustaining Merritt's economic vigor and preventing it from becoming a relic of the past.

If you seek a candidate with a progressive mindset, adept understanding of governance, and a steadfast commitment to Merritt's financial and economic welfare—a candidate poised to preserve our city's relevance & prosperity—then I am the advocate deserving of your vote.

Free spring COVID boosters

As of Monday, people in BC now have access to a free spring COVID-19 vaccine booster to maintain and extend protection against serious illnesses from COVID-19.

The spring XBB.1.5 COVID-19 vaccine will be available at pharmacies, regional health-authority clinics, some primary-care offices, and community health centres. It is free and available for everyone six months and older.

Contact the call centre at 1 833 838-2323 to book an appointment or walk into a pharmacy where the vaccine is available.

weaves family history with the timeless beauty of Vancouver Island's old-growth forests, explores complex family dynamics, intergenerational relationships, and the profound impact of tree loss in British Columbia.

Michael Christie will read at the Merritt Library on Friday, May 3, 11am-12:30pm. Greenwood is available at the library or online by visiting tnrl.ca.

Bryan Bielanski live at the Grand Upbeat and energetic nomad North Carolina folk-rock singer-songwriter Bryan Bielanski is coming to Merritt. He is on tour promoting his album Bryan's Super Happy Fun Time 3 and his quest to perform in as many locations as possible (25 countries so far) brings him this way May 11th, at Grand Pub & Grill. To find out more about Bryan, his music & tour schedule, check out his website: bryanssuperhappyfuntime.com

I'm reading a book about anti-gravity. It's impossible to put down.

Don't spell part backwards. It's a trap.

I got a new pair of gloves today, but they're both 'lefts' which, on the one hand, is great, but on the other, it's just not right.

My girlfriend said, "You act like a detective too much. I want to split up." "Good idea," I replied. "We can cover more ground that way."

With great power comes a great electricity bill. Watt a powerfull message.

Lance is an uncommon name nowadays. But in medieval times people were named Lance a lot.

Cents playoff continues

After last night's loss against the Salmon Arm Silverbacks, the Merritt Centennials play again tonight 7:05pm. Tickets can be purchased from Ska Lu La on Coldwater Ave., across from the high school (MSS) from 8am-4:30pm daily. GO CENTS GO!!!

Central School's Earth Day project

Merritt Central Elementary students are working hard to be able to do fun activities and help the planet at the same time. They have been recycling the school bottles and cans over the past few months, and the school PAC has invested in more bins to help support the project.

They are asking the community to support their cause for Earth Day — April 22 — to demonstrate support for environmental protection. This year's official theme is Planet vs. Plastics. 2024 will be the 54th anniversary of Earth Day.

If you can help out, the Merritt Return-it depot account name is: Merritt Central School. The Return-It depot is at 2352 Clapperton Ave.

Meet & greet: Linda Suzuki, artist

You are invited to the NVCAC art gallery, to meet artist Linda Suzuki at the opening of her exhibit My Journey to Finding My Voice, on Friday, April 12, 4-7pm.

This exhibit displays over 50 pieces created by Linda, who was an art teacher at MSS for many years. Now, she is sharing the personal journey of her art over the years, expressing her creativity and inspiration and the progression of her own style. "...I found my voice. Everything was so colourful and the movement in the skies, mesmerizing. I fell in love with the shapes created by landforms... My work has a graphic quality to accentuate the landforms and their shapes."

Many of Linda's pieces are for sale. She is also putting on an Arizona Landscape Watercolour Workshop, on Sat, Apr 20, 10-2pm, registration required.

Barb's Used Book & Music Spring Sale

The Kamloops Symphony's semi-annual fundraiser returns to St. Andrew's on the Square, 159 Seymour St., Kamloops from April 6-20. Open 12noon-4pm Sundays, 12noon-5pm Mon-Fri, 10am-5pm Saturdays. All money raised goes towards the Kamloops Symphony's operating expenses, including concert productions to educational programs.

'One Book, One Community'

The Thompson-Nicola Regional Library announced Michael Christie's national bestseller and award-winning novel Greenwood as this year's 'One Book, One Community' shared reading experience that promotes Canadian authors and their stories, provokes discussion, and builds understanding. Greenwood
