Burnstick

Home Routes presents an intimate concert at Kekuli, with Burnstick, the award-winning husband and wife duo of Franco-phone-Métis singer-songwriter Nadia and Plains-Cree guitarist Jason Burnstick.

They have been pushing the boundaries of traditional folk with their signature sound — Jason's 100-year-old Weissenborn lap slide guitars, and Nadia's vocals. Together, that chemistry is palpable on stage during their performances.

Their 2019 JUNO-nominated debut album, Kityânaw (Cree: Us), featuring thunderous singles like "Pay No Mind" and the Canadian Folk Music Award-winning "Some Kind of Hell," brought Burnstick's ability to blend traditional and modern influences to the national stage. Beyond their successful album, the duo's talent for composing has led them to collaborate on numerous award-winning film and television projects.

Check out their music on their website: www.burnstickduo.com/ then contact Sandy by phone 250-315-7263 or email kiforlife@gmail.com for advance-only tickets just $20. There are limited tickets, for the venue — and many of Burnstick's other concerts on this HomeRoutes tour are sold out.

A meet & greet open house for Gillis House residents and their family & friends will be held on Friday, May 24, 1-3pm. Light snacks & refreshments will be provided. Please RSVP to Avinash by May 17: avinash.tanda@interiorhealth.ca

English is weird. It can be understood through tough thorough thought, though.

A married couple, both 60 years old, were celebrating their 35th anniversary. During their party, a fairy appeared to congratulate them and grant them each one a wish. The wife wanted to travel around the world. The fairy waved her wand and poof - the wife had tickets in her hand for a world cruise. Next, the fairy asked the husband what he wanted. He said, "I wish I had a wife 30 years younger than me." So the fairy picked up her wand and poof - the husband was 90.
