Pile burning near Merritt & Brookmere starts today

The BC Wildfire Service will be conducting a fuel management project approx. 3.5 km west town in the Lindley Creek Rd area, where they will burn approx. 50 piles for wildfire risk reduction purposes.

They will also burn approx. 10 piles, 3.5 km west of the Village of Brookmere, for community protection purposes.

Smoke from the burning will be visible to residents of Merritt and surrounding communities; and residents of Brookmere, and along Hwy 5. Pile burning will only proceed if conditions are favourable. BCWS personnel will carefully prepare, control and monitor these piles at all times. Both projects will continue through to the middle of November.

Recommendations issued to Canada by the United Nations On the elimination of discrimination against women in the 'Indian Act'

On Tuesday, the United Nations Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW Committee) held its 10th review of Canada's compliance with the Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination against Women in Geneva.

The CEDAW Committee recommended that Canada completely overhaul the Indian Act to remove discrimination against women and their descendants.

First Nations women have been challenging the sex discrimination in the Indian Act for more than 50 years, starting with Jeannette Corbiere Lavell's challenge in 1971. Yet Canada has never made more than piecemeal changes to the Indian Act and continues to refuse to recognize the full extent of the discrimination, or to compensate the women and their descendants who have been harmed.

Sharon McIvor, a member of the Lower Nicola Band and the plaintiff in McIvor v. Canada, a ground-breaking challenge to sex discrimination in the Indian Act which began in 1985, welcomed these detailed recommendations, "I have been fighting this sex discrimination all my adult life. While we have taken big strides forward, the discrimination, and its effects, are not gone. I hope that before I leave to join my ancestors, Canada will completely rid itself of this colonial sex discrimination. It has done so much harm to First Nations women, their children, and their communities. We should not have to wait any longer."
