Semi-truck carrying Amazon packages to the NV overturns

"Crews are working to clear the scene after a semi-truck carrying Amazon packages overturned on the Coquihalla Highway Tuesday morning.

The crash occurred around 9am near Juliet Road in the northbound lanes, according to DriveBC. Witnesses report that crews are recovering the truck and gathering hundreds of packages scattered across the roadway. The driver of the truck is reportedly uninjured and the cause of the crash has not been determined."

The highway was not fully closed, but drivers were advised to watch for crews and equipment working between Juliet Rd and Larson Hill.

Scam: fake Telus senior's discount

Late last week, a longtime MMM reader reported a scam — a telephone call offering a fake Telus senior's discount on her internet account.

This is someone who is vigilant about telephone scams, but she succumbed to the offer. "It really sounded realistic".

Luckily the niggling started as soon as she hung up, and the next call was to her credit card company, then police. Cards were cancelled, a police file was started and our suspicious scam target was able to stop any funds from being withdrawn.

Then early this week, "That woman had the audacity to call me again! NEVER answer 778-503-0472". An accompanying email asked her to "Verify your identity", which she advises not to open.

Beem Credit Union supports Merritt & NV CrimeStoppers

Merritt & Nicola Valley Crime Stoppers Society is one of 7 non-profit organizations which have been awarded grants through Beem's Community Investment Fund. The 2024 beneficiaries are receiving between $2,500 and $15,000 depending on the project scope and anticipated community impact — a total of $60,000 this month, and $125,000 for the year. Grant recipients were chosen based on their potential to create lasting, wide-reaching benefits and their alignment with Beem's social impact priorities: supporting young parents, promoting mental wellness, strengthening social ties, and driving local economic growth.

Merritt & Nicola Valley Crime Stoppers Society is a proactive fraud and crime awareness campaign in Merritt and surrounding Indigenous communities, supporting education, security, and mental well-being with resources that promote lasting safety.
