NVHCEF donates $150,000 for equipt.

The Nicola Valley Health Care Endowment Foundation recently donated $150,000 to Nicola Valley Hospital, providing a state-of-the-art mobile ultrasound and portable X-ray machine. They will help diagnose conditions faster and improve efficiency in emergencies.

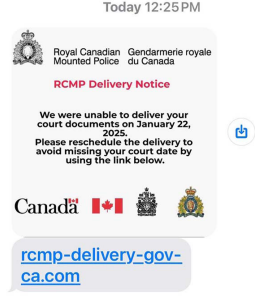

Chief of Staff Dr. Duncan Ross says the difference is like "an iPhone versus an old flip phone." The new equipment provides clearer imaging, speeds up care, and reduces physical strain on staff.

Foundation president Jean Perog, who is motivated to give back through the Foundation due to her own experience of regularly accessing the system, shares her appreciation for her community:

"We have a very generous community. We want to be able to help the community of Nicola Valley with their healthcare needs."

Text message scam looks to be from the RCMP

RCMP in Kamloops, Kelowna & Merritt are advising the public of a text message scam that has been circulating recently and appears to be sent from the RCMP.

These unlicensed text messages claim that the RCMP is unable to deliver court documents and to click a link to reschedule a court date. The text message includes a Canada logo, a Canadian flag and the RCMP logo in an attempt to deceive the person receiving this fake text. Other similar scams includes notices from the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA), BC Hydro, Canada Post and banking institutions.

"Scammers have gone to great lengths to create this message that looks like a legitimate notification, but don't be fooled and delete the message immediately", says Sgt. Laura Pollock, Kelowna RCMP Media Relations Officer. "The RCMP will never ask for personal information through a text message or email".

If you are the victim of a fraud or scam please call your RCMP detachment immediately to report it and contact the Canadian Anti-Fraud Centre.

The concept is interesting and well-formed, but in order to earn better than a "C," the idea must be feasible. -- A Yale University management professor in response to Fred Smith's paper proposing reliable overnight delivery service. Smith went on to found Federal Express Corp.

We don't like their sound, and guitar music is on the way out. -- Decca Recording Co. rejecting the Beatles, 1962.
