Pedestrian killed in crash on Coquihalla

RCMP are investigating after a pedestrian was struck and killed by a vehicle on Highway 5 near Kane Valley Road south of town early yesterday morning. Emergency crews responded to the scene at around 5:15am and found a man who had been hit. Despite efforts to save him, he was pronounced dead at the scene. Police say the driver of the vehicle remained on scene, and no criminality is suspected.

Northbound lanes of the Coquihalla Highway were closed for several hours while investigators examined the scene, but the route reopened just after 11:30 am. The BC Coroners Service is assisting in the investigation. Anyone with information is asked to contact Merritt RCMP at 250-378-4262.

Birth announcement

A Boy Is Born

Elliot Bo Barnes, 7 lbs 14 oz, with lots of dark hair, born March 22 to Bex and Riley Barnes, a brother for Rory Eloise. Ecstatic grandparents are Andrea and Paul Barnes of Merritt, and Cathy and Ashley Edge who travelled from New Zealand to meet Elliot. He's a great-grandson for Joe and Irma Starrs.

Congratulations, Marshall Willson!

During a routine stop at the gas station last week, Marshall Willson checked several of his lottery tickets using a self-scanner and was in for a big surprise – it turns out that he won $1 million from the January 1, Lotto 6/49 draw.

"I was checking tickets at the self-scanner," recalled Willson of the moment he realized he won. "The lady at the counter checked for me as well!"

The Merritt resident first shared the news with his son. "He didn't believe it, but he was very happy for me and for this to help our retirement."

With his winnings, Willson plans to make some upgrades to his home, take care of his wife and save the rest for his retirement.

Willson purchased and validated his ticket at the Shell station, De Wolf Way.

Fire on Harmon Estates Rd.

Monday afternoon, the Merritt Fire Rescue Department responded to a wild-land fire near Harmon Estates, off Monk Park Road at Nicola Lake. Thanks to the quick action of MFR firefighters, the 1-hectare fire was brought under control with no damage to nearby structures.

The fire remained under patrol until they ensured it was fully extinguished. The cause remains undetermined.

Despite cooler temperatures, MFR asks residents to please exercise caution — as conditions are already conducive to fire starts.

Labour market study

The City of Merritt is reaching out to local businesses, employers & organizations to better understand the community's workforce needs & job opportunities. Whether you're hiring, experiencing staffing challenges, or have insights on local job trends, they're looking for your feedback.

Take the short survey to share hiring needs, job openings and labour gaps, workforce challenges and trends, ideas for local support programs

Your input will help shape future strategies that support both businesses and job seekers in Merritt.

The survey closes Monday, April 28. Find it www.merritt.ca/labour/
