No City fireworks for Halloween

The City's regular certified pyrotechnic technician is no longer available to work the Halloween fireworks display put on by the City, in the past. Any fireworks conducted on City property must be supervised by a licensed fireworks operator, and Merritt Fire Rescue must also be available to monitor the event.

On top of that, the City is unable to provide the funding this year, though the recreation department continues to search for funding options and service providers for next year.

Also fireworks set off by private individuals must only be ignited on your own private property, not on public property, ie roadways and parking lots. The City recommends that you get permission from the owner of the private property before lighting any fireworks.

Photovoice Project wraps up soon

The Photovoice Project is wrapping up soon, and there's still time for the chance to take part. If you or someone you know - clients, participants, friends, or family— would like to submit they can be dropped off directly at the Arts Gallery, 2051 Voght St, Merritt - next to Kekuli Café. Mischelle will be available to offer support, answer questions, or help with submissions tomorrow Tuesday, Oct 28, from 1-3pm; and Tuesday, Nov 4, 1-3pm (that will be the final day for submissions). A $40 cash honorarium will be given for each accepted submission.

The Photovoice Project is an initiative launched by Merritt's Community Access Table and led by the Nicola Valley Arts Council. Its purpose is to gather and amplify the voices of individuals and families with lived or living experience of substance use. Through photographs and personal stories, it aims to challenge stigma, foster understanding, and honour the resilience of those affected.

The collected stories & images will be featured in a public art exhibit next month, during Na'l Addictions Awareness Week (Nov 16-22). This exhibit will serve as a space for reflection, connection, and remembrance. After the show, participants will have the opportunity to either collect their photo prints or donate them to the project for future advocacy, awareness efforts and display. (opening and closing event details to come). FMI www.nicolavalleyarts.com/

Two monsters went to a Halloween party. Suddenly one said to the other, "A lady just rolled her eyes at me. What should I do?" "Be a gentleman and roll them back to her."

What did the alien say to the flower bed? Take me to your weeder.

I told my wife: There's only one thing that scares me during Halloween... My wife: "Which is?" Me: "Exactly"
