Merritt 2026 property assessments down an average of 2%

Updated 2026 property values are now available at bcassessment.ca in addition to 2026 Property Assessment Notices being mailed to each property owner.

“For 2026, most homeowners can expect generally modest property assessment value changes in the -5% to +5% range for many Thompson Okanagan communities,” said BC Assessment Deputy Assessor Boris Warkentin. “Lytton remains an exception as that community continues to rapidly add value through its recovery and rebuilding efforts.”

In Merritt, a median value single family dwelling that was worth $458,000 on last year’s assessment has gone down to $450,000 — a decrease of 2%.

The newly released 2026 property assessment details can be searched and accessed any time at bcassessment.ca. The website also provides self-service access to a free, online property assessment search service that allows anyone to search, check and compare 2026 property assessments for anywhere in the province.

Assessment review

“Property owners can find valuable information on our website including answers to many assessment-related questions, but those who feel that their property assessment does not reflect market value as of July 1, 2025 or see incorrect information on their notice, should contact BC Assessment as indicated on their notice as soon as possible in January,” says Warkentin.

“If a property owner is still concerned about their assessment after speaking to one of our appraisers, they may submit a Notice of Complaint (Appeal) by January 31st, for an independent review by a Property Assessment Review Panel,” adds Warkentin.

The Property Assessment Review Panels, independent of BC Assessment, are appointed annually by the provincial government, and typically meet from early February to mid-March to hear formal complaints.

Arrested in Merritt for Courtenay home invasion & attack

Twenty-five year old Courtenay-area resident Matthew Russell McCharles-Carter was arrested on New Year’s Eve in Merritt, and remained in custody as of yesterday.

Comox Valley RCMP received information on December 31st that the person they believed was responsible for committing a home invasion involving an 83-year-old woman who was attacked in the break-in at about 7:30am on Dec. 28 — was on warrants outstanding in Merritt.

The investigation involved extensive, around-the-clock work by the Comox Valley RCMP Major Crime Unit, frontline members, and assistance from the Integrated Forensic Identification Section.

A special RCMP unit from Kamloops swept in and arrested McCharles-Carter on the outstanding warrants for breach of conditions and failure to register as a sex offender. He was then re-arrested for the crime in Courtenay.

He is facing multiple charges, including sexual assault, break and enter, unlawful confinement, assault, uttering threats, theft over $5,000, possession/use stolen credit card, possession of property obtained by crime, and disguising his face with intent to commit an offence.

Plane Crash A man and his wife were watching the news when a story came on about a plane crash. The news anchor said that six Brazilian soccer players were on the plane and none of them survived. The wife started crying uncontrollably. The man was very concerned and asked his wife why she was so upset. She replied, "I don't know how many a brazillion is, but it sure sounds like a lot!"

I can always tell when someone is lying. I can also tell if they're sitting or standing.

A scientist combined the DNA of a cheetah with the DNA of a crab. Things went sideways real fast!

100 miles in 24 hrs in Voght Park

This Saturday, January 10, Mark Nendick will be running around the 400m track at Voght Park for 24 hours to help raise money for the 6 children of the Jarvis family.

"They've recently been through a tragedy and their lives have forever been changed. Our community has a proven track record of coming together in the most difficult moments, but these kids will need our love forever and I want to do my part to ensure they stay top of mind," posted Mark.

Starting at 8am, he will run for 50 minutes and rest for 10, for 24 hours. The goal is to hit 100 miles or 160kms.

"I invite you and your family or friends to come down and cheer me on, or even walk or run a few laps with me. If you cannot make it but still want to help, fundraising details will be shared shortly."

Grant-in-aid deadline

Grants-in-Aid are provided to non-profit and community groups that provide valuable programs to the community and are unable to raise all their required funding without the City’s assistance. They are intended to encourage innovation that supports or contributes to the community and the goals of Council. You can request financial assistance or in-kind use of a City-owned facility. The deadline to submit an application is January 15, and info about how to apply is at: www.merritt.ca/grants-in-aid/
