20+ dogs removed from Merritt property

More than two dozen dogs have been removed from appalling conditions at a property in Merritt, in what rescuers called a serious case of animal neglect.

"Apparently, neighbours had been calling bylaw, saying something is not right over there," [said] Judanna Dawn with Angel's Animal Rescue.

Dawn and her rescue organization, along with the BC SPCA, took part in the rescue recently, taking in 20 dogs that she said were living all together in their own feces.

"I think the situation was ignored. That is why I am so frustrated," Dawn said. She took to social media after the rescue to shame the City of Merritt, accusing it of ignoring its own animal control bylaw, which prevents more than two dogs at any residence.

The mayor of Merritt, however, maintains that those allegations are categorically untrue.

Dawn said she would like to see the city take more responsibility when it comes to dog control in the future.

"This was in the middle of the city and Merritt should have, could have, known about (it) and we shouldn't have had to go there and pick up 20 dogs," she added.

"The SPCA took seven. We have a by-law. Why did it happen?"

Patti's Party Photobooths & The Caring Cutter

Setting down stakes
Not quite a year since Patti Martin moved to Merritt and she's building herself a place in the community — two small businesses that she can ramp up over time and mould into the lifestyle she wants.

The Caring Cutter, aka Patti, has worked for 35 years as a stylist/barber. Now, she brings her skills to a chair at Sinfully Sugar'd, 1922 Voght St., walk-ins welcome! Temporary hours while she builds her clientele are Mon 11-3pm; Tues & Wed 4-8pm & Friday 10:30-3:30pm. Patti also offers companionship to seniors which includes a home haircut and light housekeeping. Call her to set something up at 778-865-0533, www.vagaro.com/thecaringcutter

And when she's not the Caring Cutter, she runs Patti's Party Photobooths, a brand new exciting business for a fun, creative, and memorable experience for your next event.

Patti's photobooths are available for reunions, weddings, grads, corporate parties and house parties — any event to add an extra element of fun!

Check out Patti's website: www.pattispartyphotobooths.com or call her at 778-865-0533.

Handing off the literacy torch

Literacy Merritt & Nicola Valley Society is pleased to announce the appointment of Toni Stewart as Literacy Outreach Coordinator, following Kelly Reid's retirement in December.

LMNVS expresses deep gratitude to Kelly for her 10 plus years of outstanding service to the Society and the community. As a passionate advocate of literacy initiatives, Kelly's warmth and energy helped drive the Society's ability to engage with children and families through meaningful community literacy programs. We wish her all the best in her retirement.

The Society looks forward to putting Toni's knowledge and wide experience to good use as our new Literacy Outreach Coordinator. Her background as an educator with expertise in literacy and longstanding connections in the community will support the Society's goals to continue offering creative programs and events for residents of Merritt and the Nicola Valley.

Family Literacy Week: Unplug & play

Family Literacy Week is January 24-31 and focuses on raising awareness about the importance of reading and engaging in literacy-related activities as a family. It's also a great opportunity to take a break from devices and enjoy many health benefits, which inspired the Beem Credit Union Unplug and Play Family Literacy Week.

It starts with the Jan 24 & 25 Merritt Centennials home games sponsored by Beem Credit Union and Literacy Merritt & Nicola Valley Society. Bring a book to donate to the Bright Red Bookshelves
