Kamloops-Thompson-Nicola MP Frank Caputo, far right in photo, presented a petition on behalf of Merritt and the West Coast Corridor Resiliency Partnership (WCCRP) in the House of Commons in Ottawa, last Wednesday.

"We had floods in Merritt in 2021. The government promised they would have British Columbians' backs in Merritt. They have contributed next to nothing despite those promises. I stand with the good people of Merritt in terms of infrastructure that's required for flood mitigation," said Caputo.

"I am calling on the government to fund the flood mitigation infrastructure Merritt needs to protect homes, businesses, and residents from future disasters."

ER closure survey

A UBC research study is inviting people who live or work in an impacted community or region to share their experiences through an online survey. This is an opportunity for community members and patients to have their voices heard and help researchers understand how disruptions to emergency care affect their communities.

The survey takes 10–15 minutes. Participants have a chance to win one of 55 gift cards valued at up Cont'd, over

Pile burning in Helmer Lake area

The BC Wildfire Service will be supporting Rock Solid Industries in conducting a pile burning project about 30km northeast of Merritt.

Smoke may be visible from Merritt, Logan Lake, Lac le Jeune and surrounding areas. It will also be highly visible to motorists travelling along Highway 5.

Crews will be working to burn approx. 30-50 piles, in an effort to clean up, help reduce wildfire hazards by reducing accumulations of fuels (e.g., dead wood or brush) and promote ecosystem restoration in the area.

The exact timing of this burn will depend on weather and site conditions, but it could begin as early today. Burning will proceed if conditions are suitable and allow for smoke dispersal during burn operations, though smoke may also linger in the following days.

Rear View MMMirror - May 31, 1996

One thing I really like ...

... that tree at the top of the far driveway into the Grasslands parking lot. At night. With the lights. Entrancing (partly because of the driveway). Imagine a seat in the middle of the branches, the lights all around, you're strapped in, night. Now imagine inside Cont'd, over

It is with great sadness that I have to mention the loss of a few local businesses.

A local bra manufacturer has gone bust, a submarine company has gone under, a manufacturer of food blenders has gone into liquidation, a dog kennel has had to call in the retrievers and a company supplying paper for origami enthusiasts has folded. It's shutters for the photographer's business. That's a wrap for the gift store as they closed. The light has gone out after the light bulb company filed chapter 11. The winery has been squeezed far too long and had to close. The funeral home was buried in debt before it closed.

THIS WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

Aries
March 21 - April 19

This week brings an opportunity for honest conversation. Don't assume someone won't understand, explain. Once they know what you're thinking, their response could surprise you.

Taurus
April 20 - May 20

Don't wait for others to make the first move. A small gesture could set something in motion. When your heart is clear about where it wants to go, following its direction is easy.

Gemini
May 21 - June 20

A relationship that's been lacking sparkle will feel interesting again. Someone reaches out, a conversation lifts your spirits, or you rediscover your enthusiasm — momentum is returning.

Cancer
June 21 - July 22

Something you've been hoping for in a relationship is more achievable than you think. When you trust your intuition, and are prepared to take action, possibilities open up.

Leo
July 23 - Aug 22

Resist the temptation to examine a relationship for evidence that it's progressing in the way you think it 'should'. Rather, enjoy what's unfolding. There's lots to like.

Virgo
Aug 23 - Sept 22

By being warm, clear and confident about your needs, you'll make it easy for them to be open with you. If you set the tone you hope to create, someone will be delighted to follow.

Libra
Sept 23 - Oct 22

Make space for conversations that wander, plans that achieve nothing, and people who help you relax. By slowing down, you'll create the kind of emotional progress you desire.

Scorpio
Oct 23 - Nov 21

Your self-esteem will rise. And a relationship will start feeling easier. With your creativity flowing, you'll find imaginative ways to bring more fun into someone's world — and yours.

Sagittarius
Nov 22 - Dec 21

Someone is aware of your contribution. So, watch what happens next. A response you're not expecting will reveal just how much your presence and support are valued.

Capricorn
Dec 22 - Jan 19

Don't waste time looking at clues. Focus on the bigger picture. Once you stop searching for hidden meanings, you'll see that this connection is much easier to understand.

Aquarius
Jan 20 - Feb 18

This week, don't let an old story shape your expectations of a current relationship. What's unfolding deserves to be judged on its own merits. You'll be delighted.

Pisces
Feb 19 - Mar 20

Listen to what your heart tells you. You understand more about this person and the connection you share than can be explained by facts alone. Trust that knowledge.

your head, all those synaptic junctions, flashing like little lights as confusion rockets around your brain like a flock of silver bearings in a pin-ball machine; all those dendritic branches, like the branches on the Grasslands tree. So, the tree branches and lights become an extension of the dendrites and junctions in your brain. And tilting the seat back, you look up to the stars and moon and gas clouds and satellites and space debris. More lights, way out there. Sitting in that tree-seat, shine pouring through your eyes from stars light-years away, glow from lights inches away, sparkle from brain lights - mental phosphorous highlighting brainwaves. MAN - centre of the Universe, surrounded by lights, groping - for Christ' sake - in the dahk. Whoa! Makes me dizzy. You?

And talkin' about lights ...

'This has really been bugging me for a long time, and I gotta say something. Those lights the ballplayers wanted at Central Park. (gotta get another coffee. Stay there ...) Those lights. I had no problem with the decision Council made. In fact, I was amazed by the decision. Most politicians would have simply gone with the numbers. Far more people wanted the lights than didn't. Most rational people would have gone with the logic. The ball-players presented a far more logical and reasoned argument than the darkies. But those Parker Ave. people really believed the ball-lights would somehow have a serious negative effect 'pon their wayo'-living, and City Hall went against the numbers, against the arguments, in order to defend a handful of citizens against a perceived threat. Good, so far.

BUT - and here's the bitch - the City held out the consolation prize of a new ball-park location WITH lights ... and then shelved it! The same councillors who voted against the lights should have been the main guys pushing the new location! The Parker Ave. people, in an ideal world, would NOT have gone home satisfied UNTIL their ball-player foes had received SOME satisfaction. What the heck happened here? Did City Hall promise a new park just to cool everyone out? - then withdraw the carrot when the heat died down? The Mirror is unabashedly a City Hall booster, but this affair was flat out embarrassing. Both City Hall & the Parker people oughtta be ashamed.

Find a park. Be big. Jeez!

— Gordon Cockle, Merritt Morning Mirror #176, Friday May 31, 1996
